INTRODUCTION

CONJECTURAL ONLINE WHAKAPAPA / GENEALOGIES FOR THOSE VERY EARLY SETTLERS OF THE HOKIANGA. AN EXAMPLE FOLLOWS FOR...

‘JOHN BAKER’ AND HIS WHANAU / FAMILY

Note: John had an English wife who died before immigrating to NZ. It was said they had a daughter called Elizabeth who accompanied her dad to this far off land where he hung his hat in the Hokianga District of Northland New Zealand from about 1820.

ADDRESSING THE VALIDITY OF ONLINE GENEALOGIES...

Note: Over the past twenty or so years there has been many conjectural genealogies and a lot of hearsay floating around online for those very early First Nation People and European settlers, other than missionaries, who abounded the Hokianga Harbour of New Zealand between ‘let’s say’ 1800 and 1850. Government registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages were not required legally until about 1840 for the Europeans, and for the ‘First Nation People’ not until about 1900. So, finding official documentation (the birth right of these characters, their standing in society and or the country of their makers) is quite difficult at times, however not impossible as you will find in this journal...

Hearsay

Written and or word of mouth ‘HEARSAY’ is the silent curse for a genuine genealogist as it fixes mixed messages between legend and the actual and can sometimes make researching for the truth quiet frustrating but can also add a flourish of color and interest to what is actual. However, the truth is best when compiling a genealogy and the compiler of this journal does his very best to pass over the knowledge as it really was.

An example of hearsay: James (John) Baker had arrived in New Zealand from Ireland in 1828. He was born in 1794 and died in 1869. This was James’ (John’s) second marriage. A daughter (Elizabeth) by his first wife (name not known) supposedly before he came to New Zealand, was born in 1818. Elisabeth married Thomas Hollingsworth and died in 1854.

More hearsay: *About John Holroyd (James/Haki) Baker
He was a Sawyer and helped build the first Catholic church at Purakau at Hokianga (this was moved to Te Ti)*

John Baker (Holroyd) was actually the son the Earl of Sheffield. He had a disagreement with his father and immigrated to New Zealand with his first wife. He changed his name to his grandmother's name Baker dropping the Holroyd name. Indeed in 1909 a commission came to New Zealand looking for descendants and the family received payments from the UK Chancery well into the 1930's.

Well, there is a big question mark over this family history. The think is that when John Baker bought land in NZ of which he did quite a bit in his trading - he signed his mark. So he couldn't read or write. A bit odd for a son of an Earl not to be able to read and write. Some decedents believe he as a prisoner in Sydney who got his ticket of leave and became a Sawyer in NZ. But all needs to be verified whatever the story is like ship records? But there are lots of land records relating to Hokianga and script in Auckland. The church was in Parakau and was moved to Motiti not far from Pangaru. Worth a visit. (Sandra Jenkins)

And other hearsay tells us he was born In Ireland...

*John James Holroyd - Baker
Male 1793–1869 • Male*

John Holroyd (James/Haki) Baker

Birth: January 01, 1793 Cork, County Cork, Ireland

Death: July 28, 1869 Whitirawa, New Zealand

Managed by: Peter Graham Robinson

Son of John Holroyd, afterwards Baker-Holroyd, 1st Earl of Sheffield and Lucy Holroyd

Husband of Unknown; Susanna Baker and Mere Maro

Father of Elizabeth Hollingsworth; Samuel Baker; Mary Ann Dale; Paraiki Baker; John Baker and 8 others

Half brother of George Holroyd, 2nd Earl of Sheffield; Lady Anne Frederica Legge; Lady Maria Josepha Stanley; Louisa Dorothea Holroyd and Louisa Dorothy Clinton

And then more hearsay again tells us about his daughter Elizabeth...

GEDCOM Note:

Bio notes: Mere Maro appears to have been John's second marriage. A child by his first marriage, 'Beti' (probably Elizabeth) was born in 1818 and married Thomas Hollingsworth. Beti died 1854?

FOLLOWING ARE EXAMPLES OF THREE DIFFERING GENEALOGIES

- 1/. One for John Baker of the Hokianga
- 2/. Another for the Baker-Holroyd family of England
- 3/. And last but not least: Susanna Ladd and a John Baker of England

Note: The John Baker family genealogy (No1) is a fine example of many genealogies online which have been doctored up to make believe that ancestors of a given named person were famous or wannabe famous. As far as our John Baker is concerned it makes no sense and is conjecture only.

For a start the name used is John James ‘Holroyd-Baker’, but it is noted in the next genealogy (No2) shown from familysearch.com that their surname was ‘Baker-Holroyd’. Genealogy (No1) gives the birth of John James as January 1793, and his mother was Lucy Pelman. However, Lucy did not have any children and she didn’t marry the Earl until Dec 1794 nearly two years after the mythical ‘John James Holroyd Baker’ was born.

Genealogy (No1) also suggests that ‘John Baker’ was born in Ireland of English Aristocracy and not England as some punters have suggested ...but was our John educated to the standard of this family? (Some have said that he signed official documents with an X here in New Zealand.)

It is time enough, to put to rest the legends and the myths of this man ‘John Baker’ of the Hokianga. They are very colourful and interesting but that is all they are... The reader can decide for themselves as the compiler unearths the family history of this man and his family in this following named journal which will be posted on www.kaihuvalleyhistory.com in due course ...

AN EXAMPLE OF VALIDITY OR NOT: BAKER FAMILY OF HOKIANGA

FOREWORD

*I am from those who have come before
And those still to come
They are me and I am them*

Historical questions often asked are: Was Mary Gear who married William Gear about 1853 the daughter of Elizabeth Hollingsworth nee Baker who was historically claimed by many as the English daughter of John Baker who lived in the Hokianga, New Zealand from the about early 1820's...

After extensive research for this following family thread, the compiler of this research journal has observed that we are looking at four different maiden surnames for the Mary above who married William Gear about 1853 in New Zealand. These names were recorded in separate William Gear family records for that period from 1850 to about 1900, as follows...

1/. Mary Hollinsworth

2/. Mary Allensworth

3/. Mary Ellensworth

4/. Mary Houldsworth

'It is obvious that the people who recorded her maiden surname in various records, couldn't spell or were drunk'.

The compiler has also observed that we are also looking at three different William Gear families for that period between 1820 and about 1860, as follows...

1/. 'William' who was born about 1820 and lived in the Northern Wairoa, New Zealand. He was a soldier and possibly had his family in the 1840's.

2/. And our William who was born about 1826 and was a Sawyer in 1853 when he was married by the Missionary James Buller at Tangiteroria, Northern Wairoa, New Zealand to Mary Allensworth. This William had his family in the early 1850's.

The compiler has decided that the thread which works best for Lynne Cowan is number three, the William Gear who married Mary Allensworth in 1853 and had only one officially recorded child called 'Louisa' born about 1854.

'Louisa' would continue the thread for her family which would eventually lead to our 'Lynne Cowan' of today...*

3/. Then finally 'William' born about 1831 who possibly lived in the South Island of New Zealand who had his family in the 1860's.

Following on, the compiler will attempt to record two separate scenarios for two of these William Gears from the list that immediately follows with wives called 'Mary' and then the reader, can decide for themselves...

CHAPTER FOUR. GENERATION TWO

LOUISA GEAR AND CHARLES RUSSELL

DAUGHTER OF MARY AND WILLIAM GEAR

Generation one. Mary and William Gear. Mary and Charles Reinhardt

Generation two: Louisa Gear and Charles Russell

HER FIRST 'LIAISON'

GENERATION TWO

Louisa was born about: 1854-55

At: Northern Wairoa, New Zealand

Died about: 31 October 1928,

At: Harding Street, Auckland, New Zealand

Married about: 1870. She was underage so probably fifteen...

At:

To: Charles Russell

He was born about:

Died about:

Note: Will need a copy of their marriage to determine the age and the parents of Charles Russell...

They had the following children...

1/. Louisa 1870. No dad named

2/. Louisa Jane 1880

3/. Cecilia May Elphingstone Jolly 1881. No dad named

Note: There are only two official records for children of Louisa Russel/Russell between 1870 and 1880. It was ten years between these two. In 1880 she had 'Louisa Jane' and then immediately, a year later, while still with the surname 'Russell' she had 'Cecilia May Elphingstone Jolly' with no dad recorded but obviously a 'Elphingstone'. Three years later she had 'David Edward Elphingstone' to 'David Edward Elphingstone'. It is possible that the father of 'Louisa Jane' could be 'David' as well. But the official record tells us that Charles Russell is her dad. So, we must stick with that...

Note: See death for Louisa now 'Johanson' for birth date calculated from date of death minus her age makes her birth about 1854

ELFINGSTON/ELPHINGSTONE – JOLLY FAMILY

NORTHLAND, NEW ZEALAND

Note: It would appear, that most of this family hung their hats in the Dargaville, Kaipara district of New Zealand. They left a very narrow paper trail so finding official records for them has been difficult. However, the compiler has been able to salvage some records from out of cyber-space which may give people an idea as to “who is who at the zoo” for this family...

Note: Thomas Jolly could be the father of David Edward Elfingston...
