SOURCES FOR THIS JOURNAL

Note: From these sources one will be able to build their own family tree knowing the information in this journal, is as close to being correct as the compiler has been able to find out there in cyberspace.

PLEASE NOTE: A lot of the international records compiled for these genealogies come from the MORMON data base in Salt Lake City, America. This database is compiled from official Parish, Church, and Archives records from all over the world. From the compiler's experience, their records (although will need checking) are almost all correct...

MAORIS IN HOUSE.

WITHOUT LAWFUL EXCUSE.

COURT SITS AT NIGHT.

(By Telegraph.—Press Association.)

DARGAVILLE, June 12.

At a special sitting of the Police Court last night, Mihaka Panapa, aged 23, a North Auckland Rugby representative, and George Rahui, aged 20, were each sentenced to six weeks' gaol on a charge of being found without lawful excuse in the house of Lilian Sarah Hampton at Kaihu on June 3. Both pleaded guilty.

On a further charge of theft of three berets, valued at 4/6, the property of L. A. Hampton, they were convicted and discharged.

Sergeant Cullotty stated that Mrs. Hampton left the back door unlocked for the convenience of her sister-in-law, who was attending a dance in Dargaville. After Mrs. Hampton and her sister-in-law had returned they were disturbed by snoring in the next room. Upon investigating they found the two accused in bed. Later Rahui passed obscene remarks. When the women arose the following morning the accused had decamped, but the berets were found later in Panapa's house.

VAGRANCY. — Mary Wood, Johanna Gallagher, Isabella Leckie and Phoebe Chadwick were charged with being found by night, without lawful excuse, upon the warehouse premises of Seth Hampton, High street, on 14th October. The accused admitted the charge. Detective R. Neill deposed to finding the prisoners on the premises at half-past ten the previous evening. There were a number of crates of straw there, and the women admitted having been smoking. They were low characters, without any settled abode. Wood admitted having been convicted twenty-five times for drunkenness in Dunedin. Sergeant Briggs gave corroborative evidence as to the prisoners' characters. Leckie had been previously committed seventy-eight times. The Bench said there was no doubt the prisoners were incorrigible vagrants and a disgrace to society. Wood was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and the other three women to twelve months.

DRUNKENNESS AND ASSAULTING THE POLICE. — Charles Parker was charged with being drunk in High street, using obscene language, and assaulting and resisting Detective R. Neill in the execution of his duty. Detective Neill deposed as to the nature of the case, and the Bench fined the accused 10s for the first offence, dismissed the second, and inflicted a fine of £2, or fourteen days' imprisonment for the third.

WEDDINGS

A very pretty wedding of widespread interest was solemnised at the Church of England, Whangarei, on October 14, when members of two well-known families were linked in marriage. They were Inez Lilian, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs Herbert Williams, of Onerahi, and Thomas William, youngest son of Mr and Mrs William James Hampton, Kaihu, Dargaville.

The service was conducted by the Rev. A. E. Prebble, and the wedding music was played by Mr Marsden Woods.

Escorted by her brother Ben, the bride wore a beautiful gown of white herringbone silk, the skirt fully gathered on to a princess style bodice, heart-shaped neckline, and finished with a full train. The long sleeves came to points over the hands, while her silk embroidered veil, which was caught at both sides of the head with orange blossom, fell over the face, and also covered the length of the train. She carried a shower bouquet of ivory flowers and maidenhair fern.

In attendance on the bride, Miss Gwen Williams, niece of the bride, wore shell pink, cut on the same lines as the bride's, with short full sleeves, and her heart-shaped bonnet, was tied with a pink bow. She carried a shower bouquet of pink flowers and maidenhair fern.

The best man was Mr Seth Hampton, brother of the bridegroom.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Warrington Studio, when more than 30 guests sat down to a sumptuous breakfast. The guests were received by the bride's mother, wearing a navy blue costume and a posy of white carnations.

A beautiful range of gifts, including a number of cheques, told of the popularity of the bride and bridegroom. Subsequently Mr and Mrs Hampton left amid showers of confetti on a tour of the south. Mrs Hampton travelled in a black suit with white satin scarf and black accessories.
